

Bryce Figdore

Can the comment period be extended to August 9th or later to allow sufficient time for attending and digesting information presented at the July 24th workshop. The current schedule does not allow much time for attending the workshop and careful consideration and drafting of public comments.