

James Byrne

Drinking water criteria should be the same as for human health. All waters of the state should be as clean as possible.