

Caleb Granados

I am fine with the fees increasing for obvious reasons of cost of doing business. Although I would like to see the process adapt with not having to send in a physical check and instead have EBT or credit card be used instead. As well as paperless filing and submittal of renewal/upgrades to represent the increased cost in billing. This would significantly absorb the burden of any fees increased without complaint.