

Wilma Weddington

Please prioritize the restoration of areas and projects, including current research projects basin wide. These include implementing new strategies and technology which reduce the impact of dams operations. Plus restore funding sources. We are all sharing the same resources and they need our support to continue to exist. Thank you for your consideration and support.