

Anonymous Anonymous

We are seeing toxic algae blooms in our precious rivers year after year because not only are dams slowing the water flows thereby allowing the water to absorb the sun's rays and heat up, but also because anthropogenic climate change has created the conditions for these algae blooms to happen by heating our world even further.