

Jim Davidson

I do not believe that WS Dept. of Ecology has allowed enough time for the public comment period. The process should be open to everyone and require testing before regulating. Rulemaking should be done in the open by our elected representatives not by unelected bureaucrats.