

Patricia Schlack

"The Department of Ecology proposed regulatory changes appear to infringe on property rights in a way never intended by the federal Clean Water Act. Given these infringements were developed behind closed doors over a two-year period, the comment period should be longer. Therefore, please extend the end of the comment period to October 29, 2025."