

Daniel Grey

For 25 years I have adopted a street in University Place to remove litter before it winds up in the storm drains and in the Puget Sound. As an individual I can only make a small difference to preserve our maritime ecosystem. Limiting emissions of unhealthy effluents into the Sound benefits all the life that lives here.