

Derek Dexheimer

I fully support these rule changes to increase the forest buffers for Np streams. It's getting hotter and fish and other animals need the coolest water available. These rules should be adopted now--years of conversation and compromise have led to these rules.