

Anonymous Anonymous

It's very disheartening to see my tax dollars misused in such a way. If you want to destroy the timber industry, just do it, no need to hide behind bad science and flawed studies.

You are destroying our state and driving both business and individuals out with your regulatory war on your own constituents, come November we will remember and vote accordingly.

These regulations need to die a stillborn death.