

David Onstad

As an ecologist living in WA and someone who believes that science has much to contribute to environmental protection, I support the DOE's application of the Tier II analysis regarding changes to buffers for TYPe Np streams. DOE is consistently and rigorously applying rules that have benefitted WA for many years.