

John DiMarchi

As a past member of the Alaska Board of Forestry I can say that stream buffers on non-fish-bearing streams contribute to the health of fish-bearing streams downstream. I strongly support the proposal to expand buffer zones.