

Deborah Battisti

I support increasing the buffer zone for non-fish bearing streams to further protect our waterways and forests. Our entire watershed system should have this protection for long-term sustainability.