

Kristin Lillegard

The entire watershed needs greater buffers and more protection. Non-fish bearing streams contribute to the health of fish bearing tributaries. This is a smart move to keep watersheds healthy.