

Ronda Larson Kramer

I appreciate the improvements to permitting over the past four years in terms of being science-based and protective of aquatic life. But I would urge you to add a requirement for Ecology limnology and biological experts to review site specific information about the water body in question before issuing individual permits.