

Donna Enbysk

Our home is on a small canal just South of the RV Resort on Lake Sawyer. The silt is chest deep at this time and gets deeper each year. There are 15 lots that depend on this waterway to get on to the lake. As the silt gets deeper, the water more shallow earlier, and the lily pads and milfoil exploding, we are look at a future without fish, recreation, and the ability to sell our homes.