

Brian Barnett

I own a house on Lake Sawyer. I have concern for the outflow streem from the lake. It seems that when the water is lower than the spillway for the streem. The streem completely dries up. this must greatly effect the lively hood of the streem for all fish and habitate of the lower streem.