

Susan Towle

With our planet literally at grave risk, it is unconscionable to build this methanol plant. All the research and data points to the enormous ill effects this project will create if approved. Do not do this! Do the right thing!!