

Sam Rich

Not interested in having another dying industry's products potentially contaminate our land. Please refuse it as 1) It's not a necessity, and 2) it's potential longterm downside for the environment outweighs any potential short-term benefits to people.