

Christina Scheuer

The permit for the Kalama methanol plant should be denied. This project works directly against our climate goals. It will lead to increased pollution and greenhouse gas emissions, and it will have negative impacts on the Kalama community. We need to transition to clean energy and stop supporting dirty, dangerous fossil fuels.