

Bob Carroll

I am in favor of the NWIW Kalama Methanol project. the science shows that methanol (which we have need of) will be produced with no liquid discharge and severely reduced emissions. it is better to produce it here in this way instead of it being produced using coal in china, and have the emissions blow over here anyway. it will also create good local jobs.