

Lauren Sewell

I am gravely concerned about the environmental impacts of the proposed Kalama methanol facility. I do not support the construction of this facility, and I do not believe that the environmental impact statement takes into account the harm this facility will cause on the people of Kalama, its wildlife, its land and its future.