

Charles Breslin

As a former resident of NE Pennsylvania, I've seen first hand the land destruction, and desecration of drinking water that comes with fracking for natural gas, we do not want this in the PNW, we value nature, we value renewables, we value the climate, and we value our neighbors. This would be a devastating blow to the region and to climate change prevention overall and I personally will not stand for it.