

Vicki Johnson

Washington state has already paid the price for "clean" energy when we allowed Hanford here. Fish populations up and down the Columbia have suffered greatly, some may never return to optimum populations ever again.

This Natural gas plant is just another knife in the heart of our wild creatures and the environments that support them.

STAY OUT IF WASHINGTON