

Don Steinke

You cannot allow the DSSEIS to stand as is without knowing who monitors the pipeline for leaks and how soon they repair Class 3 leaks.

In this story, from Franklinville NY, we learn that there were three classifications of leaks. And we learn that a pipeline company allowed a leak for over a year and had not scheduled it for repair because it was a Class 3 leak, in a remote area.

https://www.niagara-gazette.com/news/local\_news/southern-tier-pipeline-leak-response-stirs-local-concern/article\_f4824e45-2ce7-5e1f-9487-b84f4f66d210.html