

Martin Adams

Please deny this project your approval. None of the uses of methanol should be encouraged. "Some may be used as fuel". Fuel should be biofuel, not methane based.

We recently banned plastic bags and learned recently that plastics are not recycled as much as purported. Most can be made from corn oil.

Please encourage leaving the gas and oil in the ground by denying this development.