

Carol Goodall

My husband and I are opposed to the Kalama methanol facility. It might provide some jobs in construction, but those will not be long-lasting. It will just add to pollution and global warming and aggravate our already deteriorating environmental conditions. We should not be shipping methanol to China. We should be trying to cut our use of such products.