

Eileen Fromer

I'm actually surprised that the Department of Ecology continues to rationalize how the Kalama Methanol Refinery will cut greenhouse gasses and prevent greenhouse gas emissions by setting up a 'straw man' - the use of coal for fuel - that methanol might replace. We are in the midst of a climate crisis and this is no time to continue emitting methane gasses.

I urge you to deny the Kalama SEIS.