

Bill Kirkland

Please reject the Kalama methanol refinery project. It makes no sense to increase GHG pollution when scientists have been warning us for years about the current climate crisis.

Greed and profit should not win out over responsible stewarding of our precious resources.