

Graden Quist

Please do not build the Kalama methanol facility, not in Washington and not anywhere. It is critical that we keep our skies cleaner without burning a CO₂ gas emission. This is so we can help to preserve all life on Earth and benefit future generations of all living things without the harmful emissions that create a global warming or temperature anomaly effect. Thank you from me and all those future generations that will benefit from not building this site.