

Annalisa Ochiltre

As a state and a nation we need to be investing in green energy, not something like this that will so substantially increase greenhouse gas emissions in washington state. I am deeply apposed to this project going forward.