

JOANA KIRCHHOFF

There are many reasons to stop the Kalama Export Facility. As Washington and Oregon burn, often on the proposed pathways for LNG pipelines the dangers of new pipelines and explosive facility is more obvious than ever before. The climate fires and hurricanes will not stop until we stop new facilities and begin to decrease our dependence on fossil fuels.

