

Lang Baker

As a former resident of Battle Ground WA, who loves the beauty of the great Northwest, I urge WA DOE to honor its mission to "Protect, preserve, and enhance the environment for current and future generations" by taking all steps available to prevent this project from proceeding. It portends devastating consequences for future generations of humans and other species.