

Sandra Whitmore

No, just no! We cannot let this project move forward. A methanol facility right on the Columbia River? It only takes one accident/spill to irrevocably harm the river. Fracking is a threat to our precious groundwater We should not support the fracking industry in any way.

Please protect our environment for future generations. Don't let short sighted and greedy corporations ruin our beautiful natural resources.