

Justas Vilgalys

I oppose moving forward with the Kalama Manufacturing and Marine Export Facility. Burning fossil fuels is bad for the environment. Burning fossil fuels is the major contributor to human caused climate change. this in turn is leading to mass extinction of plants and animals. Washington State, and Kalama should not invest in any plants that will be enable burning more fossil fuels. Instead, I urge Kalama to invest in clean, reusable energy.