

Anonymous Anonymous

I have worked on the Columbia River for much of my adult life and feel that NWIW and their shipping partners will be positive and responsible members of the business community on the river speaking forcefully for the best safety practices.