

Paul Spindel

The timing of these catastrophic fires and their link to climate change is a perfect example of why we must do better. We must do things differently. We cannot support a gigantic methanol plant and the damage it will cause locally and globally. Whether the methanol will be used for fuel, or the making of plastics, really doesn't matter. It shouldn't be used in the first place. Please deny permits. Thank you.