

Joan Smith

I oppose the building of a new mega plant at the Kalama Manufacturing and Marine Facility to manufacture fractured methane gases. This type of plant is only leading us in a backward direction and increases the pressures of climate change. Can you find a way to consider a green facility that instead adds positively to the electrical grid with wind, solar or tidal energy? Sustain life on earth with a better choice! Thank you! Joan Smith