

Linda Leonard

If built, the Kalama methanol refinery would create a huge increase in greenhouse gas emissions for the state of Washington and would move us far away from achieving our climate goals. Kalama needs to invest in a clean future, not more dirty fossil fuels. I oppose this project and hope our elected officials will do the same.