

Alexandra Richardson

This refinery would cause measurable and severe respiratory health problems due to air pollution to thousands of Washintonians and Oregonians, would harm iconic NW salmon and orca populations, and will fast-track our corner of the world to the climate tipping point. You know this is really bad. Please halt this project now.