

Lynn Carpenter

I oppose the construction of the Kalama Manufacturing and Marine Export Facility. The consensus on the world's scientists is that stabilization of the earth's climate requires reduction of greenhouse gas emission to net zero in less than a decade. All members of the global community must take unprecedented action to limit global greenhouse gas emissions beginning immediately. Building a new mega facility that will contribute enormous amounts of greenhouse gases to the atmosphere will further destabilize our climate.