

Derek Benedict

Fossil fuels need to stay in the ground, and natural gas is one of them. And this project needs to be denied because it will convert natural gas to methanol, which will then be used to create even more plastic pollution.

We've got to stop project now!