

Janine Roth

I'm continually AMAZED that a state that brags so often about how green it is seems to think these projects, that benefit foreign companies , at the cost of the health of the citizens of WA are OK. I am against it . WA does not need one more pollution spewing facility on it's soil. Please do not let this be built, just so China can benefit.