

Teresa Flynn

My husband John & I retired to Kalama, Wa. NWIW is proposing to build a fracked gas to Methanol refinery here. There is no way this project would reduce carbon emissions, in fact it would increase carbon pollution in huge amounts. This is their shell game and we would be the losers. Dept. of Ecology needs to protect the citizens from this Polluting nightmare.