

Teresa Flynn

My husband and myself are residents of Kalama, Wa. Our residence is just uphill from the proposed Methanol refinery. This is a totally inappropriate location for this project small acreage on the banks of the Great Columbia River, would be built on dredge spoils, that would liquify as a result of earthquakes. Thank you, for the work protecting Washingtons Environment. No Kalama Methanol Refinery !

Teresa Flynn Kalama, Wa