

Julie Raggio

We need immediate action in the climate crisis, and accepting NWIW's proposal is not the option. I have two teenagers, and I do not want them to inherit an unlivable planet. Please make the choice to prevent this plant to protect our communities. The project would emit a mountain of CO₂, and cause great damage to Washington's community, as well as to people in Oregon and British Columbia. Please reject this proposal. Thank you.