

james lombard

This project is a very bad idea from the start. Science tells us that this is a polluting factory that only contributes to climate change, and chemicals in our river that spawns salmon in the northwest. Please say no to this project.