

Tess Morgan

I oppose this facility for the unrecoverable risk it poses to The Columbia River. Special interest and lack of respect for treaties and legacy of a "clean" river should have been halted before now. The risks far outweigh any benefits to the international proposal that disregarded local opposition. Please prevent further proposal development and implementation immediately.