

John Zanzi

Opposed to Kalama Methanol Plant

I am opposed to the construction of the methanol plant in Kalama. We should not be creating pollution that will impact locals in order to strengthen the Chinese economy. Even if it is true that it will reduce pollution worldwide (which i do not believe) it will certainly increase pollution in the US and SE Washington in particular. No pollution here to help China create unwanted plastic.