

V Mangum

I would rather see us use solar or wind power. Building ANYTHING next to the river could be a disaster! We need to clean up our rivers not build next to them! It bothers me that they plan to use the power to move the water back up to the first pond. This seems pointless to me. ALSO this just sounds like a way to get money, not a conservation thing at all.

Protect our WATER!